EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Writers on the condition of things in Russia tell us that if anyone should happen to be 'disaffected'—for which word perhaps 'suspected' is a better substitute—by Russian or theocracy, everybody, from the poorest menial to the closest acquaintance is afraid, and unwilling to hold any intercourse with him. Readers of English history know that during the seventeenth century in England, when religious persecution was prevalent, heavy fines were levied on those who had the misfortune to think for themselves, and the Government, in order to root out such pestiferous persons, pledged themselves to give half the fine to any one who would not the spy and informant, so that conviction followed. The merchants of Wuchow, as appears from the native correspondent to the Canton

Times, in the matter of the boycott, have out-Heroded Herod. It is not needful here to refer to the usual plan of the campaign, which is the same in Wuchow in its general characteristics as elsewhere, but the methods by which they intend to try to carry out their own purposes are sufficiently awe-inspiring. In order to insure that the will of the majority shall be effective they have decided on the following severe repressive measures. If any one is found dealing in American goods after a specified time, he shall be fined by his guild a hundred dollars, which shall be handed over as a reward to the informer.

Secondly, should any business matters arise which require adjustment, as is so often the case in China, the guild will not move a finger to assist the shopkeeper, who shall be left a prey to any one who seeks to devour him. Lastly, and worst of all, those who venture to disobey the decisions of the League, shall be boycotted by their fellows, as far as the influence of the League can effect this, and their names after being published, shall be posted up in the Guild Hall,

BY TELEGRAPH.

THE CZAR'S EDICT.

INDIGNATION THROUGHOUT RUSSIA.

Concessions of a Meagre Character.

LONDON, August 18.

There are symptoms of general indignation all over Russia, owing to the very meagre character of the constitutional concessions contained in the recent Edict by the Czar.

This widespread dissatisfaction is aggravated by the unsatisfactory economic conditions of the country.

NORWAY AND SWEDEN.

THE QUESTION OF DISSOLUTION.

Storthing in Favour of Separation.

LONDON, August 23.

The question of the dissolution of the Union between Norway and Sweden has just been discussed in the Norwegian Storthing.

It was finally resolved by 104 votes to 11 to request Sweden to concur in the separation of the two countries.

THE PROSPECTS OF PEACE.

A Summary of Protocol Published.

LONDON, August 22.

A summary of the peace protocol, which will be submitted to the Conference to-day, has been published; it shows that both sides adhere to their positions regarding the indemnity and Saghala.

Conference Postponed.

LATER.

The sitting of the Conference has been postponed to to-day; the non-completion of the protocols is the reason given for the postponement, but it is believed that the real reason is that M. de Witte is waiting for final instructions from St. Petersburg.

A representative of President Roosevelt conferred with M. de Witte and Baron

Rosen yesterday.

FRANCE AND MOROCCO.

A Demonstration Proposed.

The French Minister at Fez has presented a vigorous demand for the release of the Algerian Chief captured by the Sultan, also for the payment of an indemnity.

It is understood that France contemplates making a demonstration, either on the Algerian frontier or at a Moorish port, as a lesson to the Sultan.

THE BOYCOTT.

On The Wane at Amoy.

(From Our Correspondent.)

Amoy, August 19.

There are signs that the boycott is going to turn out anything but a success in Amoy.

The sale of American goods goes on as briskly as ever, and one significant fact is that on the opening of the Anglo-American School, which is run by the Americans, the number of pupils had in no way diminished. There had been ominous threats that when the Autumn term began the boys would all refuse to enter. This has turned out to be a mistake and the boys are thronging in as though there were no boycott at all and no great determination to right the wrongs of the Yellow Race in
